

SOP FOR TDS DEDUCTION FOR EMPLOYEES

1. Please note that Deductions to be considered for the purpose of calculation of TDS on salary would be available only under the following section. The options available under each section is listed down:
 - i. u/s 80C (Maximum limit is Rs 1,50,000)
 - ii. 80 CCD(1B) (Maximum limit is Rs 50,000),
 - iii. 80D (Mediclaime) (Maximum limit is Rs (25,000+ 50,000)
 - iv. Interest paid on home loan u/s 24 (Maximum limit is Rs 2,00,000
 - v. Deduction for HRA
- 2 Other than the above-mentioned heads no other deduction would be considered for the purpose of calculation of TDS on salary. If you have made any such investments or donation u/s 80G or 80GGC you can take the refund on the same at the time of filing return.
- 3 Please also note that all the employees would have to put the values under the correct Tab along with the supporting documentary evidences of investment made. If deduction claimed are not supported by evidences and if they are incorrectly feed then it would not be considered. While feeding the details you come across any difficulties you can contact HR Department for the same.
- 4 Deduction as per 80C,80CCC,80CCD (1) & (1B) would be available only on the following

Section	Eligible investments for tax deductions	Maximum Deduction
80C	Investment made in Equity Linked Saving Schemes, PPF/SPF/RPF, payments made towards Life Insurance Premiums, principal sum of a home loan, SSY, NSC, SCSS, tuition fees paid for max 2 children etc.	Rs 1,50,000
80CCC	Payment made towards pension funds	Rs 1,50,000

80CCD(1)	Payments made towards Atal Pension Yojana or other pension schemes notified by government	10% of basic salary + DA
80CCD(1B)	Investments in NPS (outside Rs 1,50,000 limit under Section 80CCE)	Rs 50,000

5 The deduction for HRA would be allowed only on providing Rent Agreement along with Receipts of the rent paid and PAN of the landlord/lady.